WCSR
Campus news 9PM
December 5, 1949
JS

A very important Vocational Lecture will be given this Wednesday, December seventh, at five o'clock in the Conference Hall of the Alumnae House. The topic is Graduate Study. The speaker is to be Miss Meribeth E. Cameron, the Acedemic Dean of Mount Holyoke College. All members of the senior and junior classes who are considering graduate study are urged to attend this meeting. Miss Cameron will deal with the mechanics of application and entry, and examination. She will be glad to answer questions following her talk.

---***---

There are still some tickets left for the third concert in the Smith Concert Course for tomorrow night. ~~At this time~~, the featured artist is Miss Ebe Stignani, leading mezzo-soprano of some of the world's greatest opera companys. Miss Stignani has sung with the greatest triumph both here and abroad, where her charming personality and gift of expression and interpretation have produced overwhelming acclaim. Her exciting concerts this season have been greeted with ovations that have seldom been equalled, and the program which she is to offer the Smith audience will brialliantly display her magnificent voice, prodigious range, and technique. Her dramatic gifts will be fully shown in selections from operas of all perbods, demonstrating than most suave effects of bel canto and the most thrilling bravura passages. She will sing, first, three widely divergent arias of Handel. She will go on to three of the most taxing, and least often sung, examples of the golden age of Italian opera. A tremendous selection from Don Giovanni will close the

SMITH COLLEGE
NORTHAMPTON, MASSACHUSETTS

NEWS OFFICE
COLLEGE HALL

TELEPHONE:
2700 EXT. 434

first section of the concert. After the intermission, Miss Stignani will turn to superb examples of modern vocal style: three arias of Respighi, and Air de Lia from Debussy's Enfant Prodigue. In conclusion, she will return to the grand Italian style in selections from Bellini and Rossini. Tickets may be obtained at the box office before the performance.

---****---

In connection with the magnificent program which Miss Stignani will give on Tuesday evening, there will be a lecture by Mr. Hall of our music department on Tuesday. This lecture, and open meeting of Music 13, will be at four o'clock in Sage 2. Mr. Hall will discuss the singer's program. Anyone interested is invited.

---****---

The delicate, effective Christmas Cards which are on sale in Tryon Art Gallery will make a fine Christmas rememberance. Get your copies of these masterpieces of art soon. The reproductions are from Smith's permenant pictures in collection and include two works concerning the nativity scene, and one of the journey into Egypt.

---****---

Remember the Service Fund booklet that your house representative is selling this week. Be sure to by one of these address books so that you will be sure that your Christmas Cards will arrive with correct address. The books are only 50 cents and contain the full addresses of every girl registered for this year at Smith. There is nowhere else where you can get these addresses so easily and inexpensively.

---****---

At the Junior course card meeting of last Thursday, the privilege of unlimited nights for Juniors in the second semestre was ~~ingeany~~

SMITH COLLEGE
NORTHAMPTON, MASSACHUSETTS

NEWS OFFICE
COLLEGE HALL

TELEPHONE:
2700 EXT. 434

formally announced. This priviledge was iniated last year and because it was not abused, it has been ~~again~~ extended to this years class.

---****---

" All Above Board" is to be the title of this years SCADS musical. The success of last year's"Heads You Win" will lead many to look forward with enthusiasm to the week-end of January fourteenth-nth when "All Above Board" will be presented. The list of personalities in the show include lady ambassadors, FBI agents, and many naval ~~things~~ personnel. Smith students and faculty, Mr. Kingsmen, and neighboring Amherst undergraduates will aid in the production which is under the leadership of Zoanne Little.

---****---

On December 13, ~~[illegible]~~, WCSR will again have the privilege of presenting Miss Cynthis Walsh of the Hampshire Bookshop in her alternate weekly discussion of "News and Views of New Books. " Keep this program in mind and plan to listen at 9:45 for a wide and complete coverage of doings in the field of newly published literature.

---****---

The flag of College Hall was flown at half mast today in remeberence of the two tragic deaths in our midst over the week-end.

Julia Lawrence, 19, a freshman in Jordan house, died on Saturday morning, December 3rd, as a result of a bus accident in Whately, Massachusetts. She was on her way to Middlebury College when the bus in which she was a passanger skided, hit a tree, and rebounded into a telephone pole. She was taken to Cooley Dickinson Hospital where she died within and hour. Four other passangers were injured in the accident.

Julia was the daughter of Reverend and Mrs. Fredric C. Lawrence of 130 Aspinwall Avenue, Brookline, Mass. and the second oldest of six children. Her sister Ketherine is a junior at Smith. Julia prep-

SMITH COLLEGE
NORTHAMPTON, MASSACHUSETTS

NEWS OFFICE
COLLEGE HALL

TELEPHONE:
2700 EXT. 434

pared for college at Winsor School in Boston where she was an officer of Student Government. During her short time at Smith, she was a member of the third Freshman Hockey team, a member of Jordan House council, and on the alter guild of St. John's Church.

The second death was that of Mrs. Osbert Roach, for nine years head of house at Sessions House. She died of a heart attack on Saturday evening December third. Mrs. Roach was the widow of Mr. Osbert Croome Roach of Bronxville New York. She is survived by five sisters and two brothers and also by two children. A family service will be held in New York City on Wednesday and burial will be in the Fairledge Cemetery at Chappaqua, New York.

---****---

The University of Chicago has announced scholarships for college seniors to do graduate work to prepare themselves for college teaching. The award is $555, the cost of tuition, and may be used in any three quaters of the acedemic year 1951-52. Smith College has been asked to recommend one candidate. Seniors interested in this award should make appointments to see Miss Alice Norma Davis in the Vocational Office.

XXX

SMITH COLLEGE
NORTHAMPTON, MASSACHUSETTS

NEWS OFFICE
COLLEGE HALL

TELEPHONE:
2700 EXT. 434